Rank / Name CFC YEOH YU YONG

NRIC No. [REDACTED]

Corporal First Class (CFC) Yeoh Yu Yong served his Full-time National Service as an Admin Support Assistant in the Singapore Armed Forces (SAF) Imagery Support Group (ISG), from 2 Apr 2020 to 1 Apr 2022. During his service, CFC Yeoh had displayed a strong sense of professionalism and firm commitment to National Service, as seen from his outstanding conduct and performance.

CFC Yeoh took pride and ownership in his job. He was well versed with the various manpower policies on career management (CM) and carried out his tasks professionally and with minimum supervision. He possessed strong analytical capabilities, and consistently maintained high standards in his work. CFC Yeoh's dedication to his work saw him through stressful and demanding situations, especially during time-critical submission required by higher HQ. He was thorough and efficient and able to provide timely statistical inputs of manpower manning where required. He was also prompt in providing responses to staff's queries on CM matters. One key contribution made by CFC Yeoh during his period of service was his efforts to constantly update and refresh the manpower database for the formation. His understanding of the CM processes had allowed him to ingeniously identify initiatives relating to workflow enhancements. Being savvy with excel computer programming, CFC Yeoh had modified and improved on the master manpower database for more efficient data tracking and reporting. In addition, CFC Yeoh's willingness to share his knowledge and help others improve on their work had made him a respected NSF amongst his peers and the officers.

CFC Yeoh's outstanding performance earned him various promotions and award during his period of service. CFC Yeoh was awarded the Soldier of the Month (SOTM) Award in Apr 2021. He subsequently earned his promotion to the rank of Corporal First Class (CFC) on 1 Feb 2022. Promotion to this rank is reserved for the top performers of each cohort who have demonstrated commitment to duty and strong leadership.

CFC Yeoh's professionalism and positive attitude will make him a valuable member of any team. We have great confidence that CFC Yeoh will deliver similar successes in his future undertakings, and wish him all the best in his future endeavors.
